

From Appalachian Mountains of Ohio to Europe and National TV! David Church has been featured on RFD-TV's popular show, "Midwest Country" for the past 3 years. David is their most requested artist! The show is broadcast to over 60 Million via satellite and cable networks both nationally and regionally. The producer of Midwest Country, Joe Jenson stated, "David has something special, that same charisma that Hank had. When he walks on stage, the audience is spellbound! We get an incredible response each time we air his performance. He is considered by many to be the BEST Hank Williams Tribute artist, but he is also an incredibly talented singer/songwriter/entertainer in his own right! Midwest Country has also featured David and Terri Lisa, (David's wife and partner) performing original songs on their album, "Custom Made", and "Softer Side of Blue". The response was just as incredible." They are receiving requests for copies of the album from fans and DJ's for radio play worldwide!

WWE, (World Wrestling Entertainment) is recognized throughout the world and is the #2 most viewed show in the world. They contacted David in 2006 and asked him to record a theme song. The song, "Gonna Punch Someone Tonight" is an upbeat song with a catchy tune, and great lyrics. "Call me all American, I'm country through and through, I got my hat, my pick-up truck, my hound dog, he's named Blue." And the song is gaining popularity when it is broadcast each week on the "SMACKDOWN" show!

One of the highlights of David's career was received the prestigious, "RISING LEGEND" award for 2006 from the NTCMA. Bluegrass superstar Rhonda Vincent was given the same award for her rise in bluegrass!

"A Legend Froze In Time" and other original songs David has written have been played on numerous radio stations throughout the world, including the popular XM radio show with legendary DJ, BILL MAC.

David was contacted by CMT, and invited to perform at the 50th Anniversary Memorial. He performed with legendary steel guitarist, Don Helms. The response from the fans was incredible.

In March of 2003, David recorded, "A Legend Froze In Time" his tribute to Hank Williams, featuring Don Helms on steel guitar. Don wanted to make it special, something that people would want to collect and to his amazement and surprise, he recorded a 20 minute interview on the album about his life and travels with Hank.

David and Terri Lisa have performed all over the world. They have met people of all ages who share the enthusiasm and love of Hank Williams and traditional "STRAIGHT UP country music."

Hanks music is more popular today throughout the world than ever before. His influence will continue to be as much a part of our future, as it has our past.

David is a member of CMA (Country Music Association) BMI, and IFCO, (International Fan Club Organization)

"It has been an incredible honor and privilege to play a part in keeping the music of this legend alive. And the best part is meeting the people worldwide that still love the sound of traditional country music, and knowing that I can bring to life once more the awesome sound of a legend that no one can ever surpass."

David Church